THE Blossburg Advertiser comments somewhat sarcastically that "It does not look as if Prosperity had struck Tioga county. The Republican campaign has twenty-four pieces of real estate advertised to be sold at the next term of court, November 22nd. Perhaps that is the way the western farmers are paying off their mortgages with the aid of the Sheriff.

The Krupp process is superior to the Harvey process. It gives a greater depth of hardness to the plates, and therefore a greater capacity of resistance to the impact of shot and shell. Apparently the Government is anxious to deal with the owners of improved methods of its own.

THE New York World makes the following analysis of the vote of New York, New Jersey and Kentucky cast Tuesday:

of Kentucky's votes going to Bryan. New York, New Jersey and Kentucky all went Democratic last week. Had McKinley been a candidate last week instead of last year the popular vote in these three Democratic States would certainly have been cast against him. Now, deduct these 36 electoral votes from the 271 which Mr. McKinley received.

MCKINLEY ON HAWAII.

PRESIDENT BEGINS ACTIVE WORK ON HIS ANNUAL MESSAGE.

Annexation Believed to Be the Only Salvation of the Island—Insurgents Before Congress Meets.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The President has begun active work on his annual message to Congress. He is now giving attention to the Hawaiian question, which will be the first to receive attention at the coming session. Much interest is felt in the expression of President McKinley's views and desires as they will be found in his message.

It is contended by every one that he will urge the Senate to ratify the pending treaty, but it can not be regarded as expected that he will be satisfied with the passage of an act providing for the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands, which would be just as effective as the ratification of the treaty.

Mr. McKinley, however, expects the Hawaiian question to be settled one way or another, and he will look for from the representatives of the people a liberal

Much of the opposition is based on a reluctance to make a State of the islands, but the sentiment in favor of annexation is only among one party, and the President will be able to make discussion of the question in favor of the Pacific States—California, Oregon and Washington—to be most effective. The matter will not be pressed until Congress convenes, and those that are made will be for unimportant places.

Senators Shoup and Fairbanks and Representative Hitt were among those admitted to the White House to-day. The two Senators talked with the President on matters that

It is asserted again with much positiveness that J. Addison Porter, secretary to President, will shortly resign the position to become a candidate for Governor, but first may try to succeed Senator Hawley in the Senate.

Will It Be a Dollar?

While most members of Congress predict a short session of Congress, the Republicans fear that their hopes in this direction may not be realized. Although the tariff is out of the way, having been disposed of at the last session of Congress, there will be an immense amount of other business to divert the attention of the two Houses. Many of the members, while they would like to see the anticipations of a five-dollar silver dollar realized, fear that it may prove to be one of the many

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—A conference of political importance and extraordinary significance is on the slate for the next ten days or two weeks. What the outcome will, no doubt, have a material effect upon the course of State affairs in the Gubernatorial contest. The present intention is to have Philadelphia as the meeting place, though this may be changed. What compact, born of greed, [illegible]
The ruthless Abdul on his throne to kill
And ravage when and wherever he will?
And while Armenia The dying Moloch serves,
Her altars and her homes all laid in heaps,
Her daughters outraged and her sons on pikes,

Is idle jargon, as of one mad drunk?
Ye powers, innocent blood is on your hands
In that ye basely have condoned for gain
The bloodiest crimes outside the jaws of hell.
Your cup is filling fast while ye refrain
To do the one strong deed the time demands
And let your guns roar out the tyrant's knell.

Shame on you, ye who boast that ye are free!
Armenia in her helplessness and woe
Appealed to you in tears, and never a blow
When Cretans ask for aid the tyranny
Of fiends to break, brave Greece responds, and, lo,
Your guns are primed, and shot and shell ye throw
Against the weak who fight for liberty!
Ah ye who bear [illegible] seed
Is false to him who came the bruised to set
At liberty, the broken heart to bind?
Their fall and righteous retribution find.

NEW YORK LETTER.

[illegible] and this fact was strikingly illustrated a few years ago by the success [illegible] Dow, who has since become [illegible] retiring altogether [illegible] At that time there were [illegible] young physicians equally qualified to [illegible] Dow's success [illegible] drugs won [illegible] lon that followed.

"Scarcely a year passes without the graduation from New York of some more or less promising physician," said a doctor the other day, "and regarding the mysterious death of well-known physicians [illegible] the use of some drug that causes [illegible] which in [illegible] more often those [illegible] morphine, opium, and other narcotics are as much in use. The habit of using them in the case of [illegible] these drugs better than persons who have taken [illegible] with no fear of [illegible] son is said to be [illegible] remains that no class of professional men produces so many victims of [illegible] men [illegible] yield to such temptations."

The Big City's Postoffices.

The Post Office Department is preparing statistics dealing with the New York and Brooklyn Post Office, and the [illegible] the Greater New York. While the department is not pushing this matter [illegible] ested in it, and for the benefit of the Postmaster-General and his assistants, who will have the matter in charge, all available information is being collected. First Assistant Perry Heath has [illegible] division of salaries and allowances, prepare a [illegible] York, showing the gross revenue, Postmasters' salary, the allowance for clerk hire, for rent, light, and fuel, [illegible] of carriers, the cost of the carrier service, and the total cost. The figures greatly exceed the estimates made by the department, and show a state of affairs which cannot fail to be gratifying to the residents of Greater New York.

The total revenue derived from the [illegible] while the total cost is $4,132,000, thus showing on the face of the [illegible] 000. The total revenue from all offices in the United States [illegible] $50,000,000, and from the [illegible] cent. of the whole.

Included in Greater New York are fifty-nine separate and distinct offices, about thirty-five or forty stations of the larger offices, and [illegible] tions. The Postmaster drew last year $70,722 in salaries. The allowance for clerk hire was $1,010,[illegible] for rent, light and fuel, $173,[illegible] and for miscellaneous expenses, $[illegible]. The total [illegible] and they received [illegible]

The Grand Central Station.

Up in the air, three stories above ground, monitor of the great [illegible] ing and [illegible] traffic that never [illegible] day and night, till [illegible] lighted as well as the streets of all the [illegible] and 10 [illegible] in the least, the [illegible] of the old and the builders of the New Grand Central Station are steadfastly working side by side. Though the station building is not to be pulled down so far as [illegible] will go it will [illegible] roof taken away, and four stories of the [illegible] and [illegible] the two stories left standing [illegible] seem to remain, and in place of the five old towers there will be but two.
